DOCTRINE DIVIDES

Reverend Menta Sturgeon, Pastor of Tower Grove Flock, Resigns After Seven Years.

MANY MEMBERS GO WITH HIM.

Friction Over Admitting Applieants to Membership Without Consent of Rector Said to Have Caused Rupture.

Doctrinal differences existing between the pastor and certain members of the Tower Grove Baptist Church have led to the resignation of the Reverend Menta Sturgeon, who for the last seven years has been in charge of the congregation, and to the separation of nearly half of the members in good standing.

As a result, the Tower Grove Church is without a regular minister, the separated communicants having allied themselves with their old paster in what is practically a new church movement. Until definite arrangements are made for the future, the latter will hold services during the week and on Sunday at the residence of Mr. Sturgeon, No. 4317 Norfolk avenue, while Sunday-school classes will be conducted in private homes.

The controversy has been brewing near-ly seven years. Though the pastor had, from time to time, been told that he was not strictly adhering to Baptist doctrines, not strictly adhering to Baptist doctrines, there was no open friction until last April, when there was question of admitting a number of applicants to full membership in the church without previous investigation.

air. Sturgeon opposed the plan, advising that the applicants be examined and that a ballot be taken at a subsequent meeting. It is said that or this occasion one of the deacons caused the breach between pastor and part of the flock to widen by bringing the controversy to a climax, insisting that the members be admitted at once, without the consent of the pastor. Doctor Sturgeon immediately made up his mind to resign and two weeks ago he placed the facts before the church and requested a vote to decide the points at assue. His views were voted against as being not in accordance with Baptist teachings.

Doctor Sturgeon is a firm believer in tradegraph of the services of th ing not in accordance with Baptist teachings.

Doctor Sturgeon is a firm believer in fundamental Eaptist doctrines, but contends that these do not embody all of the teachings of Christ as set forth in the New Testament. He claims that the additional doctrines which he taught take up nearly three-fourths of the Bible, and insisted that Christians are to be guided by the rule of the entire Testament and not by a portion of it.

Doctor Sturgeon was followed by about thirty members of the regular congregation, who pledged themseives to stand by him. Since then they have met at his residence or services. The Tower Grove Espt... Church had, about seventy-five members in good standing before the separation took place.

The Reverend Joe Jacobs of the Chapel Car will supply the pulpit until a regular pastor has been called, which will likely not be until next fall.

The Reverend Mr. Sturgeon is highly pastor has been called, which will likely not be until next fail.

The Reverend Mr. Sturgeon is highly throught of by the ministers of St. Louis, who pronounce him a man of lofty principles and strong convictions. Sefore entering the ministry he was engaged in the real estate business in this city, the firm name being Stewart & Sturgeon.

Leather Workers Adjourn To-Day. Delegates of the National Order of Leather Workers on Horse Goods, who are in session at the Fraternal building, Eleventh street and Franklin avenue, Eleventh street and Frankin avenue, probably will finish their work to-day and adjourn. This order holds a national convention only once in five years, and the amount of business to be transacted is usually so large as to require a two weeks meeting. The present convention has been been in session since June 14. The business transacted yesterday consisted chiefly of reports of committees and adoption of resolutions for the more perfect organization of the order.

As the aim of the Holbrook-Blackwelder Real Estate Trust Co. will be to invest the money of the Savings Fund Department in zood real estate loans and business property in the city of St. Louis, the funds invested, while being perfectly sate, will also yield much larger returns to the investors than the interest usually allowed by trust companies.
